

"(4) Fees and other expenses awarded to a prevailing small entity as a prevailing party under this section shall be paid by the covered agency from funds made available to the agency by appropriation or from fees or other amounts charged to the public if authorized by law. A covered agency may not increase any such fee or amount charged for the purpose of paying fees and other expenses awarded to a prevailing small entity as a prevailing party under this section."

THE SMALL BUSINESS REGULATORY FAIRNESS ACT—SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

Sec. 1. Short Title. "The Small Business Regulatory Fairness Act of 1995."

Sec. 2. Purposes. The purposes of the act are to change the relationship between agencies and small business, to increase the understandability of regulations, to increase the accountability of regulatory agencies, and to provide meaningful opportunities for redress of arbitrary enforcement actions.

Sec. 101. Definitions. Defines covered agency (those that have regs requiring a Regulatory Flexibility Act analysis), compliance guide, no-action letter, small business concern (as defined in sec. 3 of the Small Business Act) and voluntary self-audit.

Sec. 102. Compliance Guides. Directs regulatory agencies to publish small business compliance guides for regulations with significant economic impact on small entities, to disseminate the guides through Small Business Development Centers and prohibits enforcement actions of these regs against small entities until such time as the compliance guide is published.

Sec. 103. No Action Letter. Directs regulatory agencies to establish a system for issuing "no-action letters" similar to those used by the IRS and SEC, and allows small entities to rely on those no-action letters.

Sec. 104. Voluntary self-audits. Provides that information developed during a voluntary self-audit by a small entity is not admissible or discoverable by a Federal Agency.

Sec. 105. Defense to Enforcement Actions. Provides small entities with an affirmative defense where the agency rule is vague or ambiguous and the interpretation of the small entity is reasonable, and limits the court from giving deference to agencies' interpretations of their own rules.

Sec. 201. Small Business and Agriculture Ombudsman. Establishes Small Business and Agriculture Ombudsmen in each of the Small Business Administration's regional offices who will receive complaints about the enforcement activities of other federal agencies, develop a small business responsiveness rating to each regulatory agency, publish reports on those activities, and establish a toll-free telephone number to receive comments from small business.

Sec. 202. Small Business Regulatory Fairness Boards. Establishes volunteer Small Business Regulatory Fairness Boards in Small Business Administration offices around the country, appointed by the President and the Congressional leadership to advise the Ombudsmen, conduct investigations into agency enforcement activities, prepare independent reports and review the reports of the Ombudsmen.

Sec. 203. Services Provided by Small Business Development Centers. Expands the role of Small Business Development Centers to include providing regulatory compliance assistance, serving as a resource for compliance information including the distribution of compliance guides, and developing a program to provide regulatory compliance audits.

Sec. 301. Administrative Proceedings. Amends the Administrative Procedures Act to allow small entities to recover their attorneys fees in litigation against the government where the government has made unreasonable demands of settlement that are not sustained by a court, and without having to prove that the government position was not "substantially justified."

Sec. 302. Judicial Proceedings. Makes conforming changes to Title 28 U.S.C. Section 2412.●

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

PRISON WORK ACT OF 1995

● Mr. SHELBY. Mr. President, one of the many controversial provisions of the 1994 crime bill was the requirement that states have in place an array of dubious programs, including social rehabilitation, job skills, and even postrelease programs, in order to qualify for the prison construction grant money contained in the bill.

This requirement is yet another manifestation of the criminal rights philosophy, which has wreaked havoc on our criminal justice system. This view holds that criminals are victims of society, are not to blame for their actions, and should be rehabilitated at the taxpayers expense. In their zeal to rehabilitate violent criminals, proponents of this ideology have worked overtime to ensure that murderers, rapists, and child molesters are treated better than the victims of these acts and that these criminals have access to perks and amenities most hard-working taxpayers cannot afford.

Award-winning journalist Robert Bidinotto has revealed myriad abuses. For example, at Mercer Regional Correctional Facility in Pennsylvania, hardened criminals have routine access to a full-sized basketball court, handball area, punching bags, volleyball nets, 15 sets of barbells, weightlifting machines, electronic bicycles, and stairmasters facing a TV, so the prisoners do not have to miss their favorite show while working out.

Or consider David Jirovec, a resident of Washington State who hired two hit men to kill his wife for insurance money. His punishment? Regular conjugal visits from his new wife.

At Sullivan high-security prison in Fallsburg, NY, prisoners hold regular jam sessions in a music room crowded with electric guitars, amplifiers, drums, and keyboards.

In Jefferson City, MO, inmates run an around-the-clock closed-circuit TV studio and broadcast movies filled with gratuitous sex and graphic violence.

Perhaps the winner in the race for rehabilitation is the Massachusetts Correctional Institution in Norfolk, MA. There, prisoners sentenced to life in prison—known as the Lifers Group—held its annual Lifers Banquet in the $2 million visitor's center. These 33 convicts—mostly murderers—and 49 of their invited guests dined on catered prime rib.

This is just the tip of the iceberg. These are not isolated incidents, but have become commonplace in our criminal justice system. Violent criminals have by definition committed brutal acts of violence on innocent women, children, the elderly, and other citizens. That the government continues to take money out of the pockets of law-abiding taxpayers—many of whom are victims of those behind bars—to create resorts for prisoners to mull
